It's the Same —

The '71 Apache Yearbook is a glimpse of TJC as it ends its first quarter century on the hill. Established in 1926, the campus was on the public high school grounds until it moved to its present site — 40 acres then but 75 now.

It has undergone some changes in this 25-year history. Its physical growth is one. Its standing in the Southern Association of Colleges and Universities which places its academic rating in the nation's highest is another. Teaching methods have changed. Other changes — and perhaps more significant — have come in ideas and philosophy.

Though its physical beauty has escaped the costly violence that has turned some campuses into battlefields, equality and individualism are here.

ADMINISTRATION

The Tower

Guiding policies of the administration are toward constructive academic preparation. They also support student-faculty led cultural, church and social extra-curricular.

Board of Trustees

Other members are Dr. Eugene M. Allen (fourth man sitting), A. D. Clark Jr. (2nd man sitting), Homer W. Eikner (1st man standing), Jack W. Flock (1st man sitting), Judge Harry Loftis (3rd standing), Hubert Tunnell (6th standing), Dr. Jim Vaughn (2nd standing), and B. D. White (7th man standing), also Secretary Miss Ava Lea Gentry and President H. E. Jenkins (8th man standing).

The Board of Trustees establishes the policies for the operation of TJC.

This is the 25th anniversary of the reorganization of TJC from the Tyler Public School System in 1945.

Under their and the other administrators' guidance the public has seen these changes from the year TJC moved to the hill in 1945 to 1970.

Enrollment increased from 600 students and 40 faculty members in '48 to a faculty of 165 instructing 5,000 plus students in more than 300 various courses.

Freshman Officers

Thomas Oliphant Jr., former student body president from Abilene high school, became first black President at TJC when he was elected in a runoff campaign.

Oliphant, who won the runoff over Steve Hurst of Tyler, gives credit to his friends who worked a little harder.

Other freshman officers not pictured are Richard Craig, pre-med major of Pottsboro, vice president; and Beverly Boyette, music major of Tyler, secretary.

Because of a camera malfunction during picture taking sessions last fall, more than 600 students were called back for retakes. During the shuffle of alphabetizing pictures, these came in after the class sections were sent to the publisher.

FACULTY AND STAFF

A Saturday view students don't often see —
But Monday through Friday, doors swing open for student service in more than 150 faculty and other offices.

Directors of Personnel

Seven directors head various departments other than academic.

One of the seven, working with all others, is Gene Blakely, business manager. Blakely works directly under the fiscal Vice President, R. H. Barrett. This office handles most business and financial affairs for the college: bookkeeping, payroll, federal and state reporting, purchasing of all supplies and equipment.

Along with these duties, Blakely and his staff oversee new building projects, as well as the maintenance of other buildings and equipment.

The fiscal vice president's office also determines the annual financial requirements of the college.

The office is in charge of financial assistance through loans and scholarships.

Pledging Tau Kappa

Alpha Delti Chi

Outstanding project for Alpha Delta Chi and their sorority sister, Tau Kappa, was organization of the Tyler-Smith County United Fund Campaign for students on campus. Their goal was set at $500. They kicked off the campaign with a donation of $100. President of the Tyler Chapter of the United Fund accepted the check from ADX president Coley Winter.

The fraternity also sponsored a Christmas dance and a Spring picnic. Among the community services was a skit presented for the Tuberculosis Hospital.

Thirteen active members and 40 pledges opened the year. Pledgeship covered a five-week period that ended with Hell night.

Chi Gamma Iota Fraternity

Chi Gamma Iota, newly formed fraternity for ex-servicemen, performed as their first service project a semiformal flag raising ceremony in military style.

The ceremony at 7:30 A.M. was on Armistice Day, November 11.

The ex-servicemen marched single file to the flag pole where an honor guard raised the colors as Edwin Fowler's Apache Band played the national anthem.

Among those present were the officers: President Ronald E. Wilson, Vice-President Jerry Grisham, Treasurer Bill Wilson, Chapter Relations Representative Dennis M. McKay and Recording Secretary Homer Farmer.

Also present were co-sponsors for the fraternity, Business Instructor Alan Haynes and Government Instructor Mike Watkins; members Ruben Ray, John Lowdermilk, Roy Burk, Wayne Jeffcoat, John Money, Don Day, David Williams and Roy Allen.

The organization plans to help wherever possible in any veteran-related activities. With this in mind they are setting up a scholarship fund to assist members who may need help.

In other activities Chi Gamma Iota has formed volleyball and basketball teams and competes in intramural games.

They also marched in the Texas Rose Festival Parade as "strutters."

Members of Chi Gamma Iota raise the flag every day at 7:30 a.m. The project is an example of patriotism. Members hope it will influence others.

The organization meets every Tuesday and Thursday at 10:48 a.m.

They plan to enter further into campus activities and help to make ex servicemen feel that they belong.

"We Build with Answers through Action."

Since its establishment on campus March 17, 1970, Circle K has some statistics that back up this international slogan.

Under the leadership of President Greg Johnson of Tyler, they have built their programs around five "answers through action."

Circle K, through its programs of service on campus and in the community, is dedicated to emphasizing spiritual values, encouraging the golden rule, promoting higher standards, developing citizenship, building better communities and increasing justice and patriotism.

1970-1971 PROJECTS

Circle K mailed numerous petitions signed by TJC students to the North Vietnamese asking for humane treatment for American POW's.

The Club also printed and distributed cards with "Listening Post" phone numbers. The Post is Tyler's hot line for troubled people who need someone to talk to about their problems.

Circle K members attended a fall training conference in Waco, a district convention in Austin and an international convention in New Orleans, La.

In on-campus activity, Circle K entered a float in the Homecoming parade. They also released helium-filled balloons at the Homecoming game. They entered intramural Ping-Pong competition.

Apache Guard — Hottest Thing Going

at Homecoming

The Apache Guard Association's main objective is service.

It assists the handicapped students around campus and assists the Apache Belles and Band wherever they can in working toward smoother performances. They escort the Belles through the crowds at football games, reserve areas for the Band and Belles, and hold the flag ceremony.

They also sponsor dances and the traditional bonfire. They originated the annual Drum Beating Marathon, beating continuously until the kickoff for the Homecoming game.

They are the guard for the TJC victory Ball.

Faculty sponsor for the AGA is Jim Lewis.

Baptist Student Union

Students wandering around campus during their off hours find fun and relaxation at the Baptist Student Center. Games such as Ping-Pong, chess, scrabble, basketball, football, and other activities are available.

Noon luncheon with guest speakers are scheduled Thursdays. Vespers and discussion groups are among other social activities.

BSU officers for 1970-71, headed by Director Don Mize, are President David Crawford, Vice-President Phillip King, Secretary Penny Edmonds, Communications Andrea Bass, Enlistment Liane Beacham, Evangelism Dennis Smith, Social June Green, Education Phyllis Fleming, Worship David Jones, Missions Sam Stelter, Student Center Randy Son, and Music David Waldrop.

A main event during the fall semester was the October BSU convention in Dallas. Another was the Halloween hayride.

The BSU also sponsored three service projects. Sundays, a group would go to the East Texas Tuberculosis Hospital to teach Sunday school for confined and semi-confined children.

The second service project was teaching Sunday school at the Latin Mission. Third project included music and devotionals at Colonial Manor each Wednesday night. A midwinter retreat was scheduled during January at Lakeview in Palestine which included Dr. Bill Tolar of the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary and Charles Petty of Christian Life Commission as guest speakers.

The Singing Apaches

The '70-'71 school year was perhaps the busiest in history for the Concert Choir, the Singing Apaches. A 35 member ensemble was the featured entertainment for the Texas Rose Festival Coronation — the third year the Singing Apaches have headlined this event. Students sang such numbers as "Everything's Coming Up Roses," "What Are You Doing The Rest of Your Life," "Raindrops Keep Fallin' On My Head," "What the World Needs Now Is Love," and "If Ever I Would Leave You" by the male section.

Appearances of the full 60 voice choir in the fall semester included the English teacher's convention at TJC, Veteran's Day observance at the Fountain Plaza in downtown Tyler, Lion's Club and Woman's Forum meetings, climaxed by the annual television "Christmas Special" in full color for KLTV. This program was videotaped and the station ran it three times.

The spring semester was highlighted by the highly successful production of Irving Berlin's "Annie Get Your Gun." The choir did the musical in co-operation with the drama department. Direction and choreography was by Utah Ground.

Afro-American Society

The Afro-American Society, organized in the fall of 1966 has a forward purpose — to inspire members to greater achievement and motivate them to cultivate a high academic record.

Other aims are to promote knowledge of African culture and Black American Heritage as well as unity in the college and community.

Membership is open to all students.

One week of pledging — secrets that remain secrets except to pledges and members — and one "Hell Night" officially gave all pledges full membership.

Service: Interested in helping students raise their grades, Tom Oliphant proposed plans for student tutoring. This student tutoring plan beginning in the Afro-American Society was also Oliphant's idea of student participation with administration and faculty.

Among other services was helping a family whose house was destroyed by fire.

Fun: The Afro Society co-sponsored the Thanksgiving dance with the Apache Guard.

In campus activities, the Afros placed fourth in intramural flag football.

Bateman Hall

To accommodate the increasing number of women students, privately owned Bateman Hall was converted this year from a men's to women's living quarters. The dormitory accommodates 158 coeds.

Dean of Women Mrs. Eva Saunders has wanted the change for the last four years.

Bateman was repainted, intercom system installed, full-length mirrors added to each room, and the rooms were also wired for telephones if residents wanted them.

Bateman Hall residents elected Lana Rister of Palestine dorm president for two terms.

Also elected were six coed floor directors. Those elected for the first floor are Gail Cruse of Dallas and Mary Lou Armstrong of Rockdale. Second floor directors are Jody Harper of Corpus Christi and Anita Miller of Dallas. Third floor directors are Vicki Miller of Humble and Cilia Hunter of Jacksonville.

PERSONALITIES

The lucky candidates in personality contests who walk through the doors of Wise Auditorium come out winners.

Most Beautiful on Campus

Bobbye Morris
of Van
Representing Las Mascaras

First Runner-Up

Brenda Maduzia
Fort Worth
Zeta Phi Omega

Each of the 28 coeds is a Most Beautiful. Members of her representative organization named her their most beautiful candidate.

In the December pageant, Tyler judges named a Most Beautiful and four runners-up from the 28 candidates.

Nineteen-year-old Bobbye Morris of Van, a speech major and representing the drama club, Las Mascaras, was named Most Beautiful.

Her casual dress was an orange slacks suit and her evening dress a light blue and silver gown.

The Student Senate sponsors the annual pageant. Dean of Student Life, Edwin Fowler, emceed it. The Apache Belles and Apache Band supplied entertainment.

Following Miss Morris, judges named Brenda Maduzia of Fort Worth next Most Beautiful.

Second to Miss Morris was Jackie York of Marshall.

Miss Maduzia represented Zeta Phi Omega sorority and Miss York represented Vaughn Hall.

Miss Morris and the four runners-up received roses.

Second Runner-Up

Jackie York
Marshall
Vaughn Hall

Third Runner-Up

Pam Beddoe
Quitman
Home Economics Club

The other two runners-up — fourth and fifth Most Beautiful — were Pam Beddoe and Janis Etheridge.

Miss Beddoe of Quitman, representing the Home Economics Club, was third runner-up.

Miss Etheridge of Tyler, representing the Young Republican Club, was fourth runner-up.

Other than physical beauty, the coeds were judged on their selection of dress and its effectiveness, as well as on their speech and poise, said the dean of women, Mrs. Eva Saunders.

Mrs. Saunders said judges considered inner beauty equally as important as the physical beauty of the girl.

Each coed made two appearances before the public, one in casual dress and the other in evening dress.

Sophomore Belles Jan Jones and Carleta Hathcox were in charge of Belle and Band entertainment.

The five most beautiful were sophomores.

The 23 remaining beauties, pictured on the following pages, are freshmen and sophomores.

Apache Belles and Apache Band

Like this entrance to Jenkins Hall, the Apache Belles and Apache Band are a trademark of Tyler Junior College.

Millions of persons across the United States have heard the name of Tyler Junior College because of these two groups.

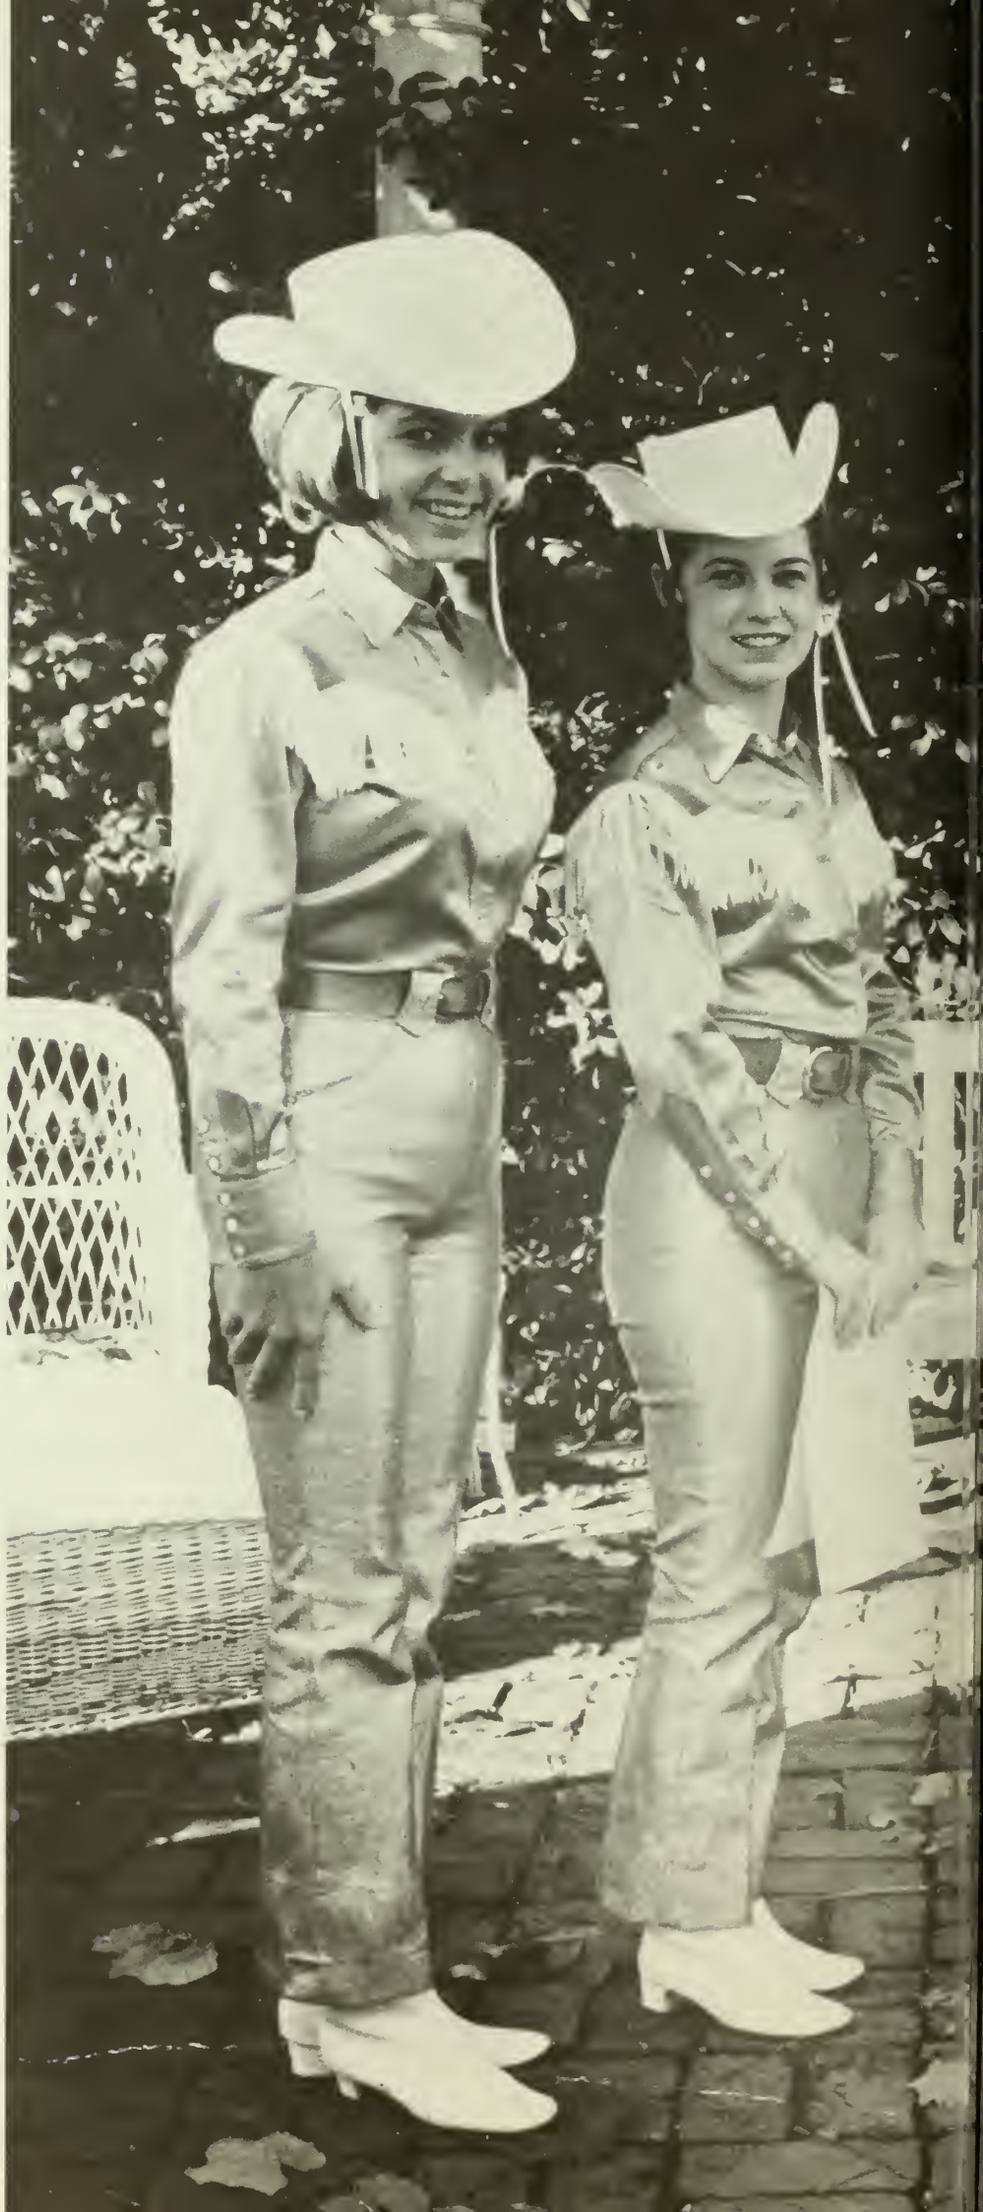
High on the dancing-musical team's achievements this school year are four full half time television performances at major professional football games.

There are no little performances among Apache Belle engagements. Whether it's a coast-to-coast broadcast or simply escorting visitors about campus, the Belles make their performance the same — BIG.

They welcomed Lady Bird Johnson to Tyler during the Texas Rose Festival, they went to Longview to perform at President Nixon's appearance, but they also met lesser royalty at the local airport and planted "When I am a Belle" hope in the hearts of little ones at the Santa parade.

In all their local, state, and national performances, they have officially missed one day of classes — the Friday they left for Washington.

Their grades reflect their attendance and their pride. Almost half of them — 50 of the 115 — made the Dean's List.



President Nixon became an honorary Apache Beau when four Belles presented Nixon's honorary certificate to Staff Assistant Mike Ferrell. The presentation was in the East Garden of the White House, Nov. 21 when the Apache Band and Apache Belles went to Washington, D. C. to perform at halftime of the Cowboy-Redskin game. Belles with Ferrell are left: Reda Barnett, Linda Barnett, Becky Wagstaff, and Betsy Wagstaff.

The Apache Band

Wherever the Apache Belles go, the Apache Band can't be far behind.

Local, state, national — they make it all.

As one member, Henry Brown, says, a lot more than a tuition scholarship is involved. Each performance is an "unforgettable" experience.

There's some bad and some good — but mostly good — that's the way Brown sees his two years in the band.

SPORTS

The '71 Apache sports section is dedicated to Warren Lester, former Apache football player who was injured during practice.

For his strength and courage, Sports Editors Eddie Kelly and Donald Session dedicate the sports section to him.

The two top junior college coaches in Texas are Apaches.

Head Football Coach Billy Wayne Andrews was named "1970 Coach of the Year" by the Texas Sports Association during his first year at TJC.

Athletic director and head basketball coach, Floyd Wagstaff, was named "1971 Coach of the Year" by the Texas Eastern Conference.

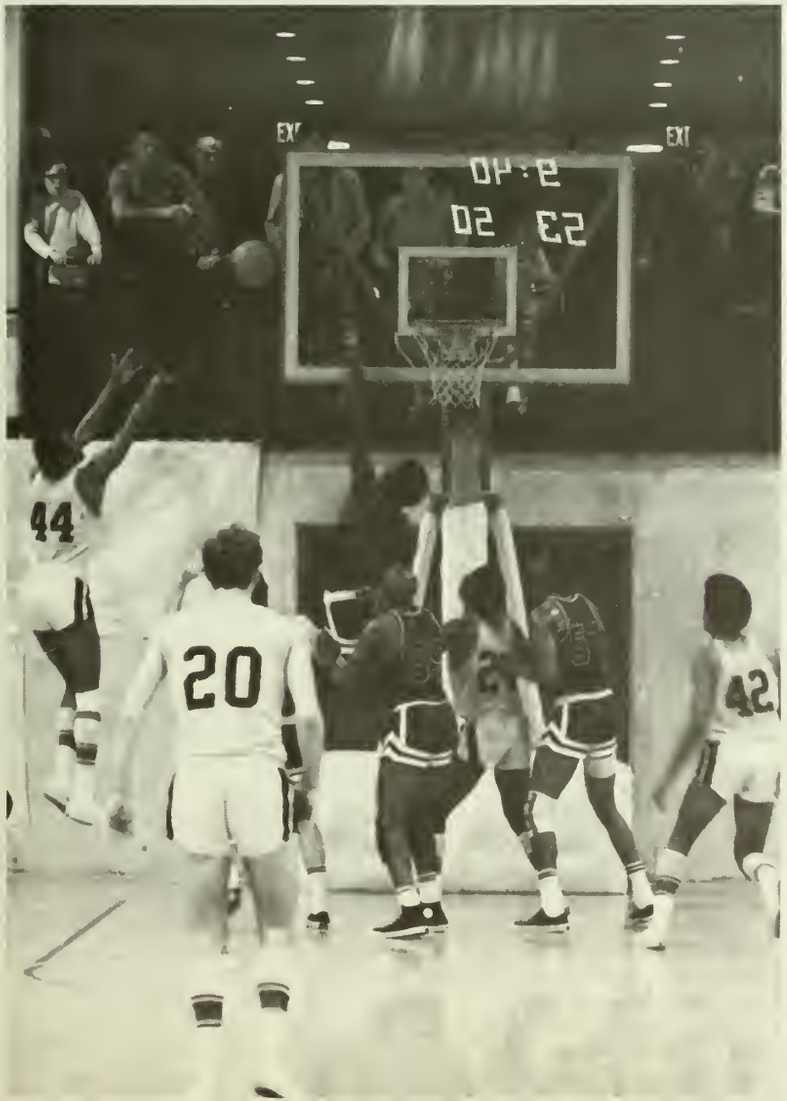
Jerry Ahart shows how to average 20.4 per game.



Region XIV North Zone Tournament was in Lon Morris' Bob Smith Gymnasium.

Henderson and Kilgore were pre-tournament favorites, but Lon Morris and Tyler pulled upsets to set up the final shootout. Lon Morris defeated Henderson 102-97 and Tyler downed Kilgore 120-93, to set the stage for the big shootout.

Tyler completely dominated two-thirds of the ball game before the Bearcats pulled back within reach only to run out of time. Final score was Tyler 90 — Lon Morris 89.

Jerry Ahart hit 83 points in three tourney games to aid in his nomination for most valuable player. Charles McKinney and Jack James also made the all-tourney team, scoring 53 and 69 points respectively.

'71 Apache Yearbook

Editor Jay Messersmith, Irving
Associate Editor Donna Kelly, Tyler
Sports Editor Eddie Kelly, Tyler
Associate Sports Editor Donald Session, Grand Prairie
Business Manager Richard Cooper, Miami, Fla.
Photographers: Wayne Jackson, Tyler
Steele Craver, Dallas
Staff Personnel: Ramona Gregory, Edgewood and David Carren, Dallas

James Cavanaugh's art department designed the cover and title page.

Ann Vittitow of Tyler, student of Art Instructor Mrs. Jacqueline Adams, designed the cover.
